I. Definition

1.1. Personal information refers to various kinds of information individually or in combination with other information, identify a specific natural person or reflect the activities of a specific natural person. The personal information referred hereto is listed in the clause “How do we collect and use personal information”.

1.2. Personal sensitive information refers to personal information that, once leaked, illegally provided, or misused, may endanger the subject’s safety and property security, or easily lead to reputation, physical or mental health damage, or discriminatory treatment. In addition to the unified definition and listing here, we also will remind you of the personal sensitive information in easy-reading form of bold fonts and underlined, or point out separately, etc. You shall pay attention to it.

II. How Do We Collect and Use Personal Information

We will only collect and use your personal information for the following purposes described in the Privacy Policy:

2.1. Registration and Login

You can access and use the Software with an account. To enable you to better enjoy our services, we provide you with the following registration services:

2.1.1. You shall provide your own email address to create your website account and set your own password. If you log in through the Mini Program, you can choose the email/WeChat third-party account authorization method to log in. If you choose the latter, you need to authorize the third party (WeChat) to provide us with your WeChat nickname and avatar for registration. If the Platform subsequently opens registration login channels such as the third-party account authorization and mobile phone verification, you can also follow instructions on the page prompts to register and log in.

2.1.2. After you successfully register an account, you can complete the relevant network identification information (account nickname, avatar, personal introduction, personal information, etc.) according to the requirements and the modules that the platform opens to users to fill in/modify.

2.2. Authentication

We will determine whether to perform user real-name authentication according to the specific requirements of the laws and regulations of your country/region. If needed, you shall provide your real identity information (real name, ID card number, mobile phone number, etc.) to complete the real-name authentication. The information above is personal sensitive information. You can refuse to provide. If you refuse, you may not be able to obtain corresponding service, but it does not affect the normal use of other functions and services.

2.3. Technical Services

2.3.1. When you upload, download audio, video and pictures, we will ask you to authorize local device storage permissions, etc. If you refuse to provide authorization, you will not be able to use this function, but it will not affect your normal use of other functions of the Software.

2.3.2. We will provide a certain amount of cloud storage space for your uploaded content and finished content after being edited (hereinafter referred as “Finished Content”) , but we do not control, edit or download the above content.

2.4. Chargeable Service

If you purchase our paid services, we will collect your payment information (including payment channels, payment institutions, payment accounts, etc.) and paid service using information, which will be retained as transaction vouchers.

Our paid services include a bulk publishing service, where you can choose to commission and instruct our system to automatically publish your finished clips to your account on a third-party platform. If you choose to use this service, you need to provide us with your relevant account information (including account interface information, etc.) in the third-party platform.

2.5. Providing you with rewards

When you participate in our relevant activities (such as inviting friends) and receive the relevant activity rewards from us, we will obtain your corresponding personal information depending on the content of the rewards. For cash remittance, we will, with your consent, collect your third-party payment institution account information to complete the payment to you; for physical rewards, we will, with your consent, collect your delivery address, delivery contact name and delivery contact cell phone number.

2.6. Improve Our Services

We may also obtain other information about you for reasonable needs to improve our products or services, including relevant feedback information provided when you contact customer service, questionnaire response information sent to us when you participate in a questionnaire survey, and related information that we authorized to obtain when you interact with our affiliates and our partners. For the information collected from your various devices, we may associate them so that we can provide you with consistent services on these devices. We may combine information from one service with information from other services to provide you with better services and suggestions.

2.7. Ensure Your Security Of Using The Software

We are committed to providing you with a safe and reliable product and using environment, to providing high-quality and reliable services and information is our core goal. In order to improve the security of your use of our services, to protect the personal and property safety of you, other users or the public, and to better prevent security risks such as phishing websites, fraud, network bugs, computer viruses, network attacks, and network invading, and to identify the violations of laws and regulations or related platform agreement rules more accurately, we may use or combine your registration information, device information, web logs, and the frequency of you using application, crash data, overall usage, performance data, and the sources of applications, to comprehensively judge your account and transaction risks, to perform identity verification, detect and prevent security incidents, and take necessary recording, auditing, analysis, and disposal measures in accordance with the law. The specific information collected and the risks to be prevented are as follows:

2.7.1. To ensure the safe operation of software and services, we may collect information about your device (which, depending on the type of device, may include hardware model, operating system version number, international mobile device identifier, unique device identifier, network device hardware address, IP address, WLAN access point, Bluetooth, base station, software version number, network access method, type, status, network quality data, operation, usage, etc.) and service log.

2.7.2. To prevent malicious programs and necessary for safe operation, we will collect the overall software operation, usage and frequency, software crashes, overall installation and usage, performance data, and software sources.
